MCH CALLS FOR NOMINATIONS

MISSOULA--

The Montana Committee for the Humanities (MCH) is calling for nominations by Oct. 1 for replacements for four members whose terms will expire Dec. 31. Two public and two academic members will be elected at the November meeting to four-year terms that start Jan. 1, 1984.

The MCH seeks to be broadly representative of the state's geographic, ethnic, political and economic diversity, according to its director, Margaret Kingsland. She said nominees should have an interest in shaping policy for public humanities programs and an interest in Montana history and public affairs.

Members serve without pay. Per diem costs of attending quarterly meetings are paid from MCH funds. Members meet each quarter, review grant applications monthly and serve on subcommittees.

Each nomination should be accompanied by a resume giving the nominee's background in academic and/or public service; two letters of recommendation; and an indication the nominee is willing to serve.

Committee members whose terms expire at the end of the year are Walter B. Gulick, Department of Philosophy, Eastern Montana College, Billings; William J. Tietz, president of Montana State University, Bozeman; Carolyn K. Ennis, project coordinator, Billings; and Jim Oppedahl, Helena.

The next MCH meeting will be Sept. 16 and 17 in Bigfork. Information is available from the MCH office, P.O. Box 8036, Missoula, MT 59807; telephone 243-6022.
